MAY SETTLE ITALIAN PROBLEM TODAY--ORLANDO IN CONFERENCE WITH COLONEL HOUSE IN PARIS

(By Associated Press)
Paris, May 13.—The Italian problem seemed nearer solution when today's conference began among the allied representatives here and it was thought probable that a basis of understanding would be reached during the day. The Italian representatives were reported more willing to make concessions. Premier Orlando called this forenoon upon Col. House, President Wilson was expected to receive Thomas Nelson Page, American Ambassador to Italy, today, in connection with the Italian question. The Italian representatives have resumed complete participation in the pending peace negotiations by appointing a member of the Liaison Commission controlling all communications with the German delegation. This commission has hitherto been composed only of British, French and American representatives.

German Socialists Denounce Severity of Peace Terms--Must Bow to Compulsion and Sign-- Allies Ready to Assume Offensive to Enforce Demands--Opposition in Germany Not Subsiding

1000 NAVAL OFFICERS WILL BE RELEASED

(By Associated Press)
Washington, May 13.—All temporary officers who entered the navy for the war period only will be released within the next few weeks. Acting Secretary Roosevelt announced today. There are more than 1,000 officers in this status and they will be replaced by reserve officers who are accepting temporary commissions with the agreement to remain in the service until 6 months after peace is declared.

THE WEATHER

Washington, May 13.—Fair tonight and Wednesday. Light frost tonight in exposed places. Moderate north to northwest winds.

(By Associated Press)
Although it is not believed that the Germans will refuse to sign the treaty of peace, Entente forces are prepared to advance into Germany if the terms are rejected according to a London dispatch. The wave of opposition in Germany in the signing of the treaty on the terms presented shows no signs of subsidence. Both President Ebert and Chancellor Schulermann have made statements denouncing the terms. Neither of them, however, went so far as to state that Germany would not sign. Meanwhile the experts of the council of four are examining the notes sent by Count Von Brockdorff Rantzau, head of the German mission, to M. Clemenceau, President of the Peace Conference, relative to the repatriation of prisoners and the establishment of a new basis for international labor legislation along lines suggested by German experts. A draft of the German plan for a league of nations has been handed to the league of nations commission of the peace conference. The Austrian delegation is on the way to Paris, some members being already in France, due to reach Paris tonight, with the chief plenipotentiaries arriving tomorrow morning.

Berlin, Monday, May 12.—"Even if important changes are not made by the negotiations begun at Versailles, there remains no choice but to how to compromise and sign the treaty," says an appeal of the central committee of the Independent Socialist party in today's issue of the party organ Die Freiheit. The appeal is prefaced by a denunciation of the severity of the peace terms. It concludes with a demand that the workers of all countries

NEW GERMAN GOVERNMENT A POSSIBILITY

(By Associated Press)
London, Monday, May 12.—The possibility of a change in the government of Germany as a result of the presentation of the allied peace terms was discussed by Philip Scheidemann, German Chancellor, at Berlin today, according to a dispatch to the Exchange Telegraph Co. He said the terms represented a "brutal dictated peace." At an audience to foreign journalists in the former Chancellor's office he said "It is possible a government may be formed, which would sign the peace terms but even if such a government did sign the treaty, it would be just as impossible for them to fulfill the conditions as it would be for us."

HUN DELEGATES WOULD CONFER WITH AUSTRIANS

(By Associated Press)
Paris, May 13.—It developed this afternoon that Count Von Brockdorff Rantzau, head of the German peace delegation, intends to ask permission to send German delegates to receive the Austrian representatives, according to a dispatch to the Havas agency. It has previously been announced that the allies intended to keep the delegations wholly apart.

DEATH OF H. FISHER ELDRIDGE

The news of the death of H. Fisher Eldredge at his home at Chatham, Mass., came as a shock to his hosts of friends at his former home here. Mr. Eldredge had been in failing health for the past few years. He was here within a month and his intimate friends had remarked about his improved health. He was a member of the 101st Infantry, K. of moved during his childhood. He early became connected with the well known Eldredge Brexley company, in which his father, and his brother, Eli Marcellus Eldredge, were large owners, and he afterwards became the sole owner of the stock of this corporation. Mr. Eldredge never had any desire to hold office, and though he had been repeatedly urged to allow his friends to elect him senator he had always firmly refused to allow his name to be used. Against his wishes he was elected to the legislature from his ward in 1899, and made a creditable record. He was connected with many enter-

BIG FORD SUIT STARTS VERY SLOW

St. Clement, Mich., May 12.—The examination of seven men of the panel of the jury to hear the $1,000,000 suit of Henry Ford against the Chicago Tribune, was about all that was accomplished in the opening day. A visit of the defendant with his secretary and son, were the only things that enlivened the meeting at all. As soon as he learned he was not wanted Mr. Ford returned to his home. HIGH SEAS STOP NAVY AIRPLANES

(By Associated Press)

Tropassey, Newfoundland, May 12.—Reports of high seas in mid ocean with easterly winds over the western half of the American Navy's trans Atlantic flight route made it improbable that the seaplanes NC 1 and NC 3 would take the air today for the Azores. In this vicinity wind and visibility conditions were poor, but weather observers declared the prospects for tomorrow both off the coast and at sea were "the best for some time."

I was walking down the street this afternoon when I noticed your car standing by the curb. Say—you've got a bad tread out in your tire. It ought to be fixed right away. It isn't serious now because I don't believe the fabric is affected, but within a few days the gravel and moisture that it will pick up will almost ruin your tire. I believe if I got at it at once I can put that place in first-class shape and if I do it will be guaranteed to last as long as the rest of your casing. A Commendable Attitude.

Mayor Hylan of New York took a most commendable stand in vetoing a bill a few days ago and spoke words that should ring through the country from one end to the other. The bill provided for a substantial increase in the pay of certain employees in the city of New York, an increase which he said would add from $10,000,000 to $20,000,000 a year to the burden of the tax payers. "This bill is mandatory legislation," said Mayor Hylan. "Large owners of real property admit that any increase in taxes carrying charges on real estate is passed along to the rent payer by increasing his rent. The rent payers seem to have their hands pretty full just now, and I cannot forget that I am mayor for them also."

Here is a thought that is too often lost sight of in the passing and signing of appropriation bills. The officials who vote away the people's money are too apt to listen to demands from influential quarters and to forget that they also represent, or should represent, those who are without public influence, but who in the final analysis bear the greater part of the burden that results from extravagant public expenditures.

When capitalists or organizations having large numbers of voters call for legislation or appropriations they are sure of a respectful hearing, and what they call for is liable to be sent "over the top" with colors flying, the officials forgetting or ignoring the multitude under the surface that has to sweat to foot the bills—not directly, but in the form of rents and other costs of living. It is refreshing to listen to so prominent an official as the mayor of New York when he says: "I cannot forget that I am mayor for them also."

In this country we declaim against class legislation, but have altogether too much of it. The labor unions, the manufacturers or any other influential body of citizens can go to the Legislature or to Congress and get almost anything they ask for, particularly if it is known that there are votes behind the propositions. Too seldom do those who have the handling of the public money stop to think that they also, if true to their obligations, represent the rent payers and others who are not in a position to make themselves heard, but who, after all, are the real burden bearers.

As to the justice of the demand for more pay this paper is not in a position to judge, but Mayor Hylan is, and it is his opinion that the granting of the increase asked for would be an injustice to the tax payers of the city, among whom there are thousands of rent payers, who, he says, "have their hands pretty full just now."

At the caucus of world war veterans in St. Louis looking toward the formation of the American Legion Col. Theodore Roosevelt, who was enthusiastically hailed as "Teddy," showed that he is not looking for office—just now. But if he lives up to his name he will be heard from later.

The closing of the stores Wednesday afternoons will seem a little awkward to the public for a time, but it is to be expected that the people will soon become accustomed to the condition and by exercising forethought save themselves from any serious inconvenience.

The Germans complain of the terms and the French are not over-enthusiastic over the Peace Treaty. But, on the whole, a fairly good job appears to have been done and it would seem to be to the interest of all concerned to settle down and make the best of it.

The Connecticut Legislature has finished its business for the year and adjourned sine die. The same is true of the law making bodies of most of the states, but Massachusetts may be expected to drag along as usual until about "hayin' time."

From this time on until further notice the Country Club assemblies will be held at the club's quarters, and the change will be agreeable to the members. It is always pleasant to get out in the open at this time of the year.

The talk about regulating the speed of automobiles in the city streets this season is of the right sort. Now let the talk be followed by resolute action and all will be well.

SONS IN QUARREL, FATHER IS SHOT.

Portland, Me., May 12.—Within a short time after he had been arraigned in the municipal court on the charge of carrying concealed weapons and held to the grand jury of the September term of the superior court, George E. Stewart of 98 Elm street was shot, it is alleged, by his son. The bullet taking effect in his leg and producing only a slight wound, Stewart was arraigned following a complaint made by his wife on Sunday that she was menaced by a revolver he had in the house. She said that at one time it had been pressed against her body. She did not appear to testify at the hearing today and Stewart's attorney criticised her severely, saying that she was not in good health and imagined things. It was claimed that Stewart was in the habit of carrying a revolver on his gasoline boat which he uses about the harbor. The police found one under his pillow when they visited the house Sunday.
Following the hearing Monday Stewart's two sons got into a dispute over the matter and another revolver, which was hidden in the house, was brought out, with the result that Stewart received the wound in the leg.

HUNS WANT WORLD REVOLUTION

Paris, Monday, May 12.—In the peace treaty with Austria, now well toward completion, a responsibility clause has been inserted identical with that in the German treaty, with the exception of provision for the trial of former Emperor William. Provision is made for trial of military offenders by an international court martial. The frontier delimitation of the new Austria presents the only serious issue in the drawing of this treaty, the lower Tyrol, a section of which is detached from Austria and placed within the boundaries of Italy. It includes the cities of Bozen and Merano, and a German population of about 250,000. The reason for attaching this German speaking population to Italy is the establishment of a strategic frontier giving Italy protection from invasion from the north. As has been stated, the frontier lines as drawn in the terms to be presented to Austria are the ones laid down by the treaty of London, although the treaty makes no mention of this fact.

Paris, Monday, May 12.—The Hungarian government has not yet accepted the invitation to name delegates for the signing of the peace treaty but it is assumed that the Bela Kun regime will gladly take advantage of this means of establishing relations with the outside world. Allied representatives at Vienna were directed to proceed to Budapest recently for the presentation of the proposal. It was expected at this time that the Soviet regime was about to fall but it later developed that it had secured a new lease of life. The instructions to the allied representatives were not withdrawn, however, and the results of this mission to Budapest are awaited.

PEOPLE'S OPINIONS

Councilman Leakey—Regard to City Physician.

Editor:—In Monday's, May 12, J. Brown, Islington St. People's Opinion wants to know why no quorum last Thursday council meeting.
To put Mr. Brown right should he ask again or any one else to put them right you might say the council stands 3 for and 6 against the City Physician.

May 13th, 1919.

Rye Beach, N. H.
April 13, 1919.

Editor:—In the interest of Portsmouth business men, I am prompted to say something on the closing of nearly all stores in your city on Wednesday afternoon during the summer. I wish it understood that I am heartily in favor of the clerks in all places having half day but many people, like myself, believe they have taken the wrong time for this closing. Would it not have been better to have the closing period from October to May and allow the store keepers to get the benefit of the summer trade which means much to them when the summer visitors are with us in Portsmouth and surrounding towns. As it is at the present time, the beach people will come into Portsmouth on Wednesday afternoon to do business and find the city like a Sunday. It is hard to compel clerks to work seven full days with Saturday night added and it is hard for the merchants to have closed doors in a season when hundreds of visitors leave much money in your city. It ought to be possible for the clerks and store owners to arrange the half day in such a way as not to lose the business or interfere with the half day for the help which they deserve.

NAVY YARD NOTES

Had No Rudder

The transport Wilhelmina, formerly of the Hamburg-American line, without a rudder, was towed to Charles-town yard on Monday and placed in dry dock. All work on the ship will be rushed.

Everything Out Sea Duty.

The yeomen (P) are getting the real navy life at the Mare Island yard in California. Besides the clerical duties they can be seen carrying out the same drills as the male members of the corps, cooking and arranging their own food in navy yard mess halls, in fact doing everything except sea duty. It is understood that the women attached to the Mare Island station are not allowed the full amount of subsistence money owing to the government providing them with the necessary meals.

Ought to Be Good Practice.

The Southern ball team will meet a team from the Austria on Thursday and likely the Pittsburgh or South Dakota team on Friday.

Meet Friday Night.

A meeting of those pledged to form the Portsmouth Navy Yard Mutual Aid Association will be held on Friday evening, May 16, at 8 o'clock at Oak

Another call for volunteers among the Yeomen (P) has been made for duty at the Great Lakes training station and the naval air station at Moorhead City, N. C. It is doubtful if any of the local women will leave here from the fact that they cannot be spared for the transfer at present.

Three Likely Men for Team

Among the men likely to make one or the other of the new civilian ball teams to represent the yard are Broderick, former short stop of New Hampshire College, Gammon formerly of the Cornels of Lynn and Irving, another New Hampshire college man. The first men for the teams will be picked today.

CASE GOES ON TRIAL IN BOSTON ON WEDNESDAY

The case of Carmelo Adario of this city against the firm of Staples & Bell of Boston, will be heard before Judge Hain in the United States District Court at Boston on Wednesday. Adario who was employed by that firm in the North End Coal pocket on Feb. 26, 1917, fell a distance of 30 feet in one of the pockets sustaining a compound fracture of the leg and other injuries. At the time of the accident workmen were obliged to cut a hole in the bottom side of the structure to remove the man before he could be sent to the hospital where he was confined several weeks. He sues to recover damages and is represented by Attorneys Albert R. Hatch of this city and George H. Lucy of Boston. The coal pocket at the time was leased to the Boston company.

FIND NO EVIDENCE AGAINST JEWELL

The outcome of the case against George Jewell of Kittery Point, the young motorman who was alleged to have assaulted Schuyler C. Tobey Jr., at his lunch room opposite the Kittery Point car barn Saturday night, was that the respondent was immediately discharged by Judge Justin Henry Shaw in the Kittery court Monday evening, after the state has closed. Attorney Arthur E. Seabury of Portsmouth, who appeared for Jewell, moved that the complaint be quashed, and the motion was allowed. Tobey admitted that he had received a drink from a bottle given him by Jewell, but there was no evidence of any quarrel between the parties. Sometime after this drink, Tobey stated his mind became a blank, and the last he remembered was that he thought someone had hit him. He awoke early Sunday morning, feeling sick, and missed some money he had in the evening. He telephoned Constable M. Morton Seward of Kittery Point, and an investigation followed. Jewell was arrested, and his room was later searched, but there was no mention allowed in court of the loss of the money, as Jewell was not accused of robbery. The evidence given by Tobey did not apparently look good to the court, and Judge Shaw stated that it would be a waste of time to go further. Attorney Arthur Seabury of Kittery Point was engaged by Tobey to conduct the case for the state.

Boston, May 12.—The arrest yesterday on grand jury warrants of officials of the Millbrook Wool Combining Company, East Boston, has excited intense interest throughout the Boston wool trade. The officials of the company are charged with stealing $5,000 worth of wool from the firm of English & O'Brien, Inc., 119 Atlantic avenue, the members of which are also charged with conspiracy, as are the two employees who were arrested. The officials arrested are John Coggeshall, treasurer, and Samuel Waterbottom, president. With two employees of the company, Edmund Waterbottom and John Parker, they appeared Boston, May 13.—During a raid at No. 11 Union street, South End, Monday afternoon by officers from station 5, Miss Yvonne A. Clement of "A" street, Manchester, N. H., and Frances L. Currier of Epping, N. H., were arrested in company with two discharged soldiers from the 28th division.

Both young women, who appear to be about 25 years, decidedly attractive and refined, claim to have come to Boston Monday morning from Manchester, where they have been residing at the home of Miss Clement.

According to the police, Miss Clement has a previous record in Rockingham county at Portsmouth, N. H. Both will appear for trial today.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are a purely vegetable compound mixed with olive oil; you will know them by their olive color.

Dr. Edwards spent years among patients afflicted with liver and bowel complaints and Olive Tablets are the immensely effective result.

SALVATION ARMY DRIVE BEGINS NEXT WEEK

The local end of the National drive for funds for the Salvation Army, one of the welfare organizations which made more than good in this great war, will be handled by the Portsmouth Lodge of Elks, and they are taking hold of it with just one thing in sight and that is pushing Portsmouth over the final top for this great work.

Of the $10,000,000 which is asked for the entire country, the budget of which has been submitted and approved, gives Portsmouth's quota as $10,000, and a fair proportion of this will be for the support of the local organization. The drive begins on Monday, May 19, and continues until May 26th.

A preliminary meeting was held on Monday evening at the Elks Home, when arrangements were made for the organization of the local end of the drive. There were present prominent members of the Elks, President E. A. Holden of the Chamber of Commerce, Fred M. Sise who has been chairman of the drive in this section and others interested.

On Sunday May 18 a mass meeting will be held at the Colonial theatre and prominent workers of the Salvation Army, and men who have been overseas service, and who know of the great work of the Salvation Army will be heard. It is planned to appoint

MORE SERIOUS NOW

Than Ever Before Because of War-Reduced Reserve Strength.

The war has been far-reaching in its effects. It has caused worry and anxiety in every home, and has affected the health of every family. It has aggravated chronic troubles, increased their frequency, and made all sprouting ailments more serious.

As a result, a blood-purifying, stomach-feeding spring medicine is more necessary than ever. People will take Hood's Sassaaparilla because it is an old family friend, has proved its merit to three generations—as a spring and all-the-year-round medicine in purifying the blood, expelling humors, restoring appetite, relieving rheumatism, banishing that tired feeling. It combats roach, barks, berms, and berles often prescribed by physicians for spring ailments of the blood, stomach, liver and kidneys. Hood's Pills are a good cathartic.

RAINBOW DIV. MEN QUIT AYER

Camp Devons, May 13.—Rainbow division veterans who have been waiting transportation for a fortnight started for their home camps Monday five trains bearing 2000 soldiers leaving in the forenoon. Their quarters were filled Monday afternoon by veterans of the 32d division, including the 121st field artillery which reached Boston on the Georgia. Three trains brought 33 officers and 1319 members of the regiment to camp.

A detachment of the 119th field artillery, also of "Les Terribles" arrived Monday. Other large units of the 32d division include the 126th infantry with 25 officers and 2332 men, on the steamship P. J. Lachenbach, and the 121st machine gun battalion on the steamship Tolosa.

PORTSMOUTH THEATRE.

Ask any of the returned soldiers of the Yankee division what he remembers of how the boys amused themselves in their spare time in France, and you will bring to his recollection some barn, some open-air stage, even perhaps a platform which was nothing but the hind end of a truck. He may tell you of a pretty girl who danced, of her disappearance in the improvised dressing room to change her costume, or of the wondrous bits of fingerling flung carelessly to hang on the edge of a screen, and of the poor boob who fell for it and edged around a little to steal a peep into that dressing room. Hardly a man in the Division missed seeing the Y. D. divisional show as the circus-writing headlines called it. Many divisions had shows of their own, but the Yankee Division probably had a show more nearly unique than any other, at least in one regard. Its first performance was in the municipal theatre in Toul, in Lorraine, France. The occasion was made a formal opening night. General Edwards occupied the box of honor, and his staff and the staffs of the French generals in the neighborhood were in the surrounding boxes. With General Edwards sat the prefect of that district, a man whose office corresponds to that of the governor of a state here. And with the prefect was his beautiful young wife, who by the way was a girl from Chicago. The book of the show was written by soldiers, and the management, music and players were all soldiers. Only two weeks before these men had been serving in the trenches, digging latrines, serving canons—for a number of them are artillerymen. Their wit was soldier wit as pointed as a bayonet, as delicate as a gun butt. And the best tribute any commanding general ever got was that paid to Gen. Edwards in that show. Many of the jokes were directed at him, without fear on the part of the boys that their old man would be offended. He wasn't offended, but he was tremendously embarrassed. Especially when the wife of the Prefect began to translate to her husband what was being said on the stage. The performance was a huge success, since then the show has been given continually whenever the division was not up to its neck in a fight. It has been given in a box car, in the trenches themselves—after the armistice—in the woods of the St. Mihiel sector and in the city of Chateau Thierry. The show was with the first unit into Chateau Thierry four days after the place was captured, and played on a ground lot for the supply company of the 104th Infantry and a big audience of civilians. In our embarkation area it played on the tail of a truck for three days during the division athletic tournament. In Economy it put on a special performance for General Pershing and his staff. It played in tents and barns throughout the area, and in the theatre at Le Mans. It was used for the opening of the Y. D. hut in Le Mans which was built by the 101st Engineers in record time. And to crown it all, it went to St. Nazaire, and played on a wharf. With its audience on a steamboat that was tied to the wharf. Although under these peculiar circumstances the boys all enjoyed the show. This same show with the special scenery from over there will play at the Portsmouth Theatre this week Thursday, Friday and Saturday with special matinees on Friday and Saturday.

SAVE MONEY ON SHOES FOR THE WHOLE FAMILY

From Foochow, China, comes this letter from R. E. Gardner, Foochow College: "Neolin Soles have solved the shoe problem for me. Other soles wore out quickly on the rocky roads here, and I had no end of trouble with them," he writes.

Where other soles fail, Neolin Soles always stand the test of hard wear and rough usage. This fact points the way to economy. Buy Neolin-soled shoes for the whole family, and so save shoe money. And have Neolin Soles put on your old shoes, too.

These durable, flexible, and waterproof soles are scientifically made by The Goodyear Tire & Rubber Co., Akron, Ohio, who also make Wingfoot Heels, guaranteed to outwear all other heels.

BRITAIN BOSS OF THE AIRPLANES

London, May 12.—The British Press generally asserts that the commercial development of the airplane is much further advanced in Great Britain than in any other country. According to the American Chamber of Commerce in London a mail service from Cairo to India is to be inaugurated. The air route already has been surveyed and a route from Cairo to the Cape of Good Hope is being laid out.

Aeroplanes are to be established at suitable spots in the British Isles and British possessions and equipped with sound and light signals, balloons, aerial buoys and wireless telegraph and telephone outfits.

"Already cargo airplanes are in sight," the Chamber of Commerce announces. "A huge British airplane of novel type equipped with five motors has been flown carrying six tons at 100 miles an hour. Experiments are being made with another having a carrying capacity of nine tons."

NEWCASTLE

New Castle, May 13.—All the world according to the proverb, loves a lover. This is not wholly true but it is true that all the world loves a mother. The Island Town did its bit toward fittingly observing Mother's Day. At the Congregational church, Rev. G. L. Hanson, D. D., preached a most brilliant sermon in keeping with the day. Soldiers have told and have written of the roles of "Mother" that have come from the ghostly No Man's Land where the wounded lie, of the same cry on the hospital beds of agony. It was not a cry for any religious vision which had been told, nor for the girl he left behind, but for the deathless love "Mother" for the best thing that he shall ever see "Till the Peary Gates" be known.

MUSICAL FOR SCHOOL PIANO FUND.

Lieut. Commander Thomas Mott Osborne and Peter Kutz are to give a musical on Thursday evening at 11th School Assembly Hall, the proceeds to be used for the Farragut school piano fund.

The fund started with $100, raised at the meeting of the Parent-Teachers' Association held at the Farragut school some weeks ago. The children of the school have been so anxious to have the musicals a success that the sum necessary to purchase the piano has been raised. They have worked untiringly to sell the tickets and there are now few left unsold.

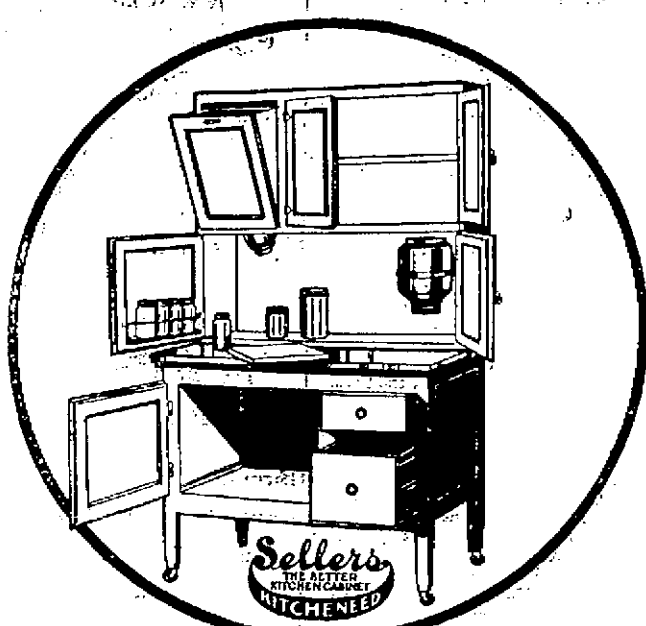

There are some young and promising musicians among the children of the Farragut school and its orchestra is an organization worth while. It is hoped to purchase the piano and place it in the school before the term closes.

The Navy Department has communicated with the head of the Industrial Department, Capt. L. H. Adams and others. If the Portsmouth yard can take the hospital ship Comfort for necessary repairs.

Captain Adams has wired the department that the local yard would be glad to undertake the work on the ship but must have the necessary money to go ahead with it.

According to the present estimate of repairs $1000 is needed from the Bureau of Construction and Repair, but the amount necessary for repairs of her machinery is not known from the fact that no survey has reached the Industrial Department.

At present the yard appropriation will only cover such work on ships that are now on hand.

The Industrial Manager has made an appeal for the needed money and hopes the ship and money will both be sent along. No doubt but the repairs will come under rush orders if the ship lies up here.

This is a case where money talks.

This dance has been extensively advertised in Newburyport, Amesbury, Haverhill, Exeter and all towns in the neighborhood of Salisbury Beach and we can be assured of a large crowd of Hardsley's friends taking advantage of this last opportunity of dancing to music which is agreed upon by thousands to be the best ever in this section of New England.

Police Got Suspicious and Ordered Party Held Up in This City.

An automobile party of four men were held up by the police here this forenoon on request of the police of Newburyport. The men who claimed to belong to Peabody were on their way to Old Orchard. The attention of the police at Newburyport was attracted when they were seen to throw an empty handbag from the machine while passing along the highway which caused some suspicion but proved only to be a bag in which they carried some booze that they threw away after consuming the liquid contents of the bottles. They were allowed to proceed on their way after an hours stay at the police headquarters.
